

FAEDS BOARD MEETING
Post-Conference
November 8, 2000
Clearwater, Florida

President, Carlotta Appleman, called the meeting to order following the closing of the Conference.

The first order of business was to fill the Board position vacated by the resignation of Kathy Anderson. Tim Nesler of Santa Fe Community College stated he was willing to fill the vacancy. The Board members unanimously voted to have Tim serve on the Board. President Carlotta then appointed members as specific officers and committee chairs. Bill Piotrowski, the President-elect was elected to that office in 2000.

They are as follows:

Randy Acevedo - Secretary
Rich Stuense - Treasurer and Past-President
Budget - Fred Rabe
Awards – Ron McCord
By-Laws – David Jasa
Historian - Allan Pither
Membership - Ron Schoenau
Webmaster - Dan Cromer
Scholarships - Jack Tinsley

Discussion followed on the conference attendance, program and location. The location for the 2001 conference was discussed. The board agreed the Belleview Biltmore was centrally located, spacious and provided good accommodations for the cost. Overall the Board approved returning to the Biltmore for the 2001 Conference. Bill Piotrowski received several other suggestions and agreed to check them out before a final decision was made.

Other discussion included the current status of the FAEDS budget. Additional scholarships were discussed. Also, the possibility of FAEDS providing technical training was suggested. Marie Dense, with the help of Bill Piotrowski, agreed to look into training. Jack Tinsley stated he would look into the Community College Distance Learning Consortium training offered.

Rich Struense agreed that Brevard would be a main supporter of the FETC booth.

The meeting was adjourned.
